

Monograph Presentation Checklist

Criteria
Presentation Style
Clear, concise, audible
Presentation within allotted time limit
Appropriate pace and tone
Presenter made eye contact with audience
Presentation Content
Background and significance of disease state provided
Purpose for drug explained
Key aspects of drug highlighted
Limitations to the use of the drug presented
Limitations of the existing body of literature described
Conclusion/recommendation reflects a complete and accurate understanding of the topic
Ability to Respond to Questions
Responses:
Presented professionally and with confidence
Presentation based on evidence from the literature
Demonstrate knowledge of disease state and drug
Explain gaps in the literature or where evidence is lacking
Addressed any special populations and unique issues related to the drug
Provided a convincing argument for the recommendation	